

ON THE ROAD WITH

Boylston Schulverein, Walpole, MA

May 8, 2008. Although it was a drizzly day in late spring as we were driving up to Walpole, MA, spirits were immediately lifted as the music started and members of the Boylston Schulverein began to dance. The BSV is a really super group of people who enjoy music through their singing. It's always a thrill when we end the evening with "God Bless America," and everyone in the hall is standing and singing with pride! Thank you BSV!
