Jamming with dSb

September 7, 2008. Alpine Squeeze! had the distinct honor to perform at a private party for dSb Die Schlauberger. Held at the Gottscheer Hall in Ridgewood, NY, there was plenty of good food and entertainment throughout the evening. During the last set, several members of the dSb band grabbed their instruments and joined Alpine Squeeze! on stage to perform several dSb favorites. We ended the evening together performing "Hey Jude" by the Beatles.
