

Dear Friends and Fans of Alpine Squeeze!

If you are like me, you're probably saying "Wow - 2010 is just about over." It's even harder to believe that another decade has ended! Isn't that the truth! Where has the time gone?

November was an interesting month. Many of us were pretty much "Oktoberfest-ed" out from all the festivals we performed during the fall season. In came November, and there were some remaining fests that we played, and before we knew it, it was Thanksgiving and the beginning of the Christmas season.

November was a great month for Alpine Squeeze. We booked another show at the Zeppelin Hall and Beer Garden, played a few private parties, and basically winded down from an exhausting season. All the while always appreciating the friends we met along the way.

For me, November is the month that I "re-started" the many projects that were put on hold during the busy show season. November is also the time of year when, in our neck of the woods, outdoor clean up is a must. Winterizing the pool, raking up all the leaves, shutting off the water to the garden hoses, chopping wood for our fire pit – all of the outdoor jobs that point to the realization that winter is right around the corner. It was also a lot of fun going to our kids' soccer games again as they wound up their season.

We are excited about December. With appearances at Plattdeutsche Park, Zeppelin Hall and the Black Forest Mill, there will be plenty of opportunities to enjoy those great Christmas tunes while still raising a glass to "Ein Prosit." Don't forget, Alpine Squeeze will be ringing in 2011 at Zeppelin Hall on New Year's Eve. That will surely be a lot of fun!

On another note, I'm happy to report that we have started to record our new album, which we hope to have ready by next spring.

As I mentioned in our November newsletter, we have to thank all of our friends, fans, fellow musicians, agents and especially our families for a great year 2010. We are already receiving bookings for 2011. The holiday season is upon us and I'm very excited about it, as I am sure you are too! As I close this month's newsletter, we wish you and your families only the best for a safe and happy holiday season!

Merry Christmas, Happy New Year and PROSIT!

Eric, Cherie and the Alpine Squeeze! Band
